raising a voice for those affected by cancer

about us

cancer voices sa is an independent organisation of volunteers representing the views of south australians whose lives have been affected by cancer.

we are part of a national network through cancer voices australia.

cancer voices sa aims to better represent the views of those affected by cancer.

promote these perspectives to health professionals, government and the public.

ensure patients and supporters are receiving the best possible information, treatment and care.

work to increase funding for prevention, detection, research and improved treatments.

key objectives

encourage those with experience of cancer to contribute to all levels of decision making about the disease.

ensure cancer patients, carers and supporters receive the best possible information and world's best practice treatment, care and support.

ensure cancer patients, their carers and supporters are well represented to health professionals, government and the public.

ensure those affected by cancer are treated equally regardless of their geographical location, social or economic status, age, ethnicity, sexuality, gender, stage or type of cancer.

become a member

membership is free and open to cancer patients, their family, friends, carers and supporters.
