Cancer Voices SA

About Us

Cancer Voices SA is led by people who are passionate about making a difference to cancer outcomes.

We focus on wellness, not just illness.

We advocate for good systems and information to underpin the experience and outcomes of people affected by cancer.

We use personal experience and knowledge in representing:

- The views of cancer patients, their partners, family, friends, colleagues and supporters
- All cancer types and stages
- The full spectrum of cancer, including prevention, diagnosis, treatment, survivorship and palliative care
- The diversity of those affected by cancer
- The consumer experience and knowledge of health care in public, private, community, hospital and specialist settings

Join Us

Become a Cancer Voices SA member to:

- Demonstrate your support for our values, vision and purpose
- Actively participate in our activities
- Receive and give information about cancer
- Use your cancer experience to collaborate with others in shaping the directions, policies and research for cancer care
